It is our privilege to welcome Dr. Isaac James Schaeffer, a native of Antigua and Barbuda and the U.S. Virgin Islands, and a resident of the State of Texas. Dr. Schaeffer is a clinical chaplain, counselor, trainer, and author with more than 35 years of experience in ministry, serving individuals, families, professionals, and communities.

Dr. Isaac's work spans healthcare, pastoral ministry, corporate training, and community organizations. He specializes in whole-person care and has experience in trauma and intensive care chaplaincy, grief and bereavement, end-of-life care, and ethical decision-making in healthcare.

Throughout his career, he has provided professional development in crisis intervention, emotional and spiritual assessment, caregiver support, resiliency, burnout prevention, conflict resolution, team dynamics, and interpersonal communication. He has delivered more than 5,000 hours of professional training and educational programming.

Dr. Isaac holds graduate degrees in counseling and theology and is the author of three books exploring relationships, faith, and God's love.

His life and work reflect a deep commitment to strengthening those who care for others through compassion, integrity, and faith. He is married to Wendy, his wife of 38 years, and together they are the proud parents of six grown children.

Please welcome Dr. Isaac James Schaeffer.
